

John Huw Davies Solo Singing Masterclass

Haybergill Centre, Appleby, Cumbria

30 October – 1 November 2009

Participants in the course will sing and receive coaching in front of other class members and any observers present. The aim will be to improve both technical and interpretative ability. A wide variety of vocal ability can be incorporated in this format.

The atmosphere of these classes is always relaxed and enjoyable, but much work can be done and improvement made in the time available.

Before the course you are asked to prepare four pieces to perform during the weekend. It will begin on Friday evening and end on Sunday afternoon at approximately 4 p.m.

The Haybergill Centre is purpose built for courses and is set in its own grounds near Warcop. There is a most attractive room where the course is held and there are individual two bedded ensuite rooms and spacious dining room.

This course is fully residential and the course fee will include all tuition fees, 2 nights' bed and breakfast, lunch, (Saturday and Sunday) supper (Friday and Saturday) and hot drinks.

Fees are: £220 residential. This is on a shared basis. There is a £25 extra charge for a single room and as these are limited some rooms may be off site.
£170 non residential (lunch, supper and hot drinks included).
Residential partners (shared room) £120.

Places on the course are limited, so please book early by sending a deposit of £50 the balance to be paid by July 7th. In order to keep the course fee as low as possible, refunds cannot be made after this date unless replacements can be found, and you may wish to insure against illness etc.

If you would like to come as an observer the cost is £10 per day.

John Huw Davies has been organising and teaching masterclasses for singers for over thirty years. He takes part in some twenty week and weekend courses each year for both solo and choral singers. He has given solo recitals for Radio Three, and appeared in major concert halls in the British Isles, Europe and the Southern hemisphere. He has presented programmes on radio and on television for both the BBC and ITV. He specialises in conducting the major choral and orchestral repertoire, and has directed both the BBC Singers and the BBC Northern Singers. He taught at Trinity College of Music, London and at the University in North Wales.
